NERCA Announces New 10/10 Commission Rate

New England Rare Coin Auctions, the world-famous auction division of New England Rare Coin Galleries, is unveiling an exciting new concept this month which we call "10/10." In essence, 10/10 is a restructuring of our auction commission rate, resulting in some very special advantages for both coin buyers and sellers. For complete details on 10/10, see NERCA President Lee J. Bellisario's letter in this month's Inventory Selections. We're sure you'll be excited about 10/10 as we are.

We'd like to thank all the Inventory Selections readers who sent in their free World Coin Catalog cards over the past two months. New England's World Coin Division is busily compiling and collating your responses in preparation for the new catalog's first issue. For those of you who didn't submit a card, you may still get on the World Coin mailing list simply by calling our toll-free number: 800-225-6794. If you are calling from within Massachusetts, dial 617-227-8800.

Don't forget to send New England your new 1980 Want List. With the current boom in the rare coin market, our numismatists have been flooded with orders, and our inventory is turning over more quickly than at any other time in our history. Several Inventory Selections readers are finding that the coins they want from our catalogs are gone all too soon. But by sending us your Want List, New England's numismatists can search continuously for the coins you want. This will greatly increase your chance of obtaining precisely what you need to fill those gaps in your collection. To submit your Want List, simply send us your name, address and telephone number, along with a list (by type, date and approximate condition) of the coins you want most. You will be under no obligation to buy these coins once we've found them, and there is no charge for our Want List services.

Tom Sullivan

This month, Tom Sullivan, one of New England's most experienced numismatists, is celebrating his 17th anniversary as a coin collector and dealer. Born and raised in the New England region, Tom used to spend Saturday nights attending antique auctions. At one of these affairs, he purchased his first collectible coinage: a group of mintmark Lincoln Cents for $1. "Like everybody else, I put them in a blue book and looked them up to see what they were worth. Soon, I was sorting through $500 worth of pennies every week, selling some for profit and reinvesting that profit in my personal collection." So involved was Tom in his new-found hobby/business that even an appendix operation failed to slow him down. "A ladyfriend of mine lugged bags and bags of pennies into my hospital room so I could keep sorting through them. One time, I found a 1955/55 double strike, which was worth about $250 then."

After stockpiling a small inventory, Tom began to buy and sell coins at New Hampshire flea markets along with other budding numismatists like James Halperin and Frank Garofalo. Months later, he opened the Natick Coin and Stamp Shop in Natick, Massachusetts, and, for several years, ran the area's most successful monthly coin auctions. "My shop was just 3 miles down the road from Jim Halperin's. Jim used to come in to buy inventory from me." Tom deadpans, "He doesn't do that anymore."

As James Halperin's tiny coin shop evolved into New England Rare Coin Galleries, Tom's love of high-quality coins drew him to the firm. "At New England, I knew I could handle coins I'd never handle anywhere else. When we moved to Boston, I helped design the retail store and was its first manager. Of course, that's when we had a staff of 23 and we could all take an occasional lunch hour. Now, we've got over 75 people and if I grab one bite out of a sandwich at noon, I consider myself lucky. The volume of business today is unbelievable."

Tom presently lives west of Boston and, along with coin collecting, he enjoys an avid passion for running. He has competed in seven marathons from Boston to Miami — four of which he has run in under three hours. His present duties at New England team him with Purchasing Manager Russell Vaughn, and send him all over the world in search of high-quality coins for NERCG's inventory. "I like working at New England. We all click here. And I see nothing but continuous upward movement for the rare coin market."

1891-O, PROOF-63, TONED. Attractive violet and golden toning. Unquestionably an authentic proof with full blazing proof surfaces and without a trace of mint frost. A few proof 1891-O quarters are known, but this is the first dime we have ever seen or heard of. A discovery piece and doubtless of great rarity.	3,950.00

“With all these gorgeous coins available, everyone’s standards went up.”

Christopher Tracey
Vice-President, Retail Sales

“Collectors often ask me about New England’s ‘small increment’ or ‘pinpoint’ grading. The best place to see it at work is in our offering of Morgan Dollars from the famous LaVerre Redfield Collection. In 1974, when it was found, the Redfield Collection consisted of over 400,000 perfectly preserved silver dollars. With all these gorgeous coins available, everyone’s standards went up. Collectors began to make finer distinctions between coins. Simple ‘Gem UNC’ and ‘MS-65 +’ descriptions were no longer good enough.

“So when New England decided to offer Redfields, we selected 10 key and semi-key dates, and secured a good supply of each. Then we graded carefully, accurately, and in small increments from MS-60 to MS-69, with correspondingly small price steps. Now, when a New England customer decides to put, say, $400 into an 1887-S Redfield, he can open our catalog and find the coin he wants for the price he wants to pay. He is never caught between one coin in too low a grade, and another that’s beyond his budget. His money goes right where he wants to put it, and he doesn’t have to settle for less.”

What do the "SP" letters mean in your U.S. Currency listings? I notice them often, always to the right of the "FR" numbers. — G.K., New Britain, CT

The "SP" that sometimes appear to the right of Friedberg numbers in our U.S. Currency listings designates "specimen notes." Specimen notes are much like Proofs or Essays. They were printed as experimental pieces and not intended for circulation. In fact, to prevent them from circulating (and as a cost-saving measure), specimen notes were either left completely blank on one side, or left blank except for the word "Specimen" stamped in large bronze letters. For this reason, specimen enthusiasts are faced with a very special collecting challenge: finding two specimen notes that, when combined, form the obverse and reverse of a single note. (Pictured here is the "Wide Margin" version of FR #1272-SP. Specimens usually come in two versions: Wide Margin and Narrow Margin. This particular note is one of only 4 specimens listed in Friedberg whose designs were never used on regular-issue U.S. Currency.)

At a coin show this weekend I saw a 1783 Georgius Triumphus token. The exhibitor described the portrait of Washington as "stylized." What exactly does this mean? I have heard it used of other coins that don't resemble the Washington piece at all. — R.R., Lubbock, TX

Whenever an artist or designer sacrifices strict representation for the sake of conforming to a particular style or tradition, the result is said to be "stylized." It is quite certain that George Washington never looked quite so much like a Roman Emperor in real life as he does on the token — but it was traditional to represent any conquering hero as if he belonged to the great classical ages.

In Roman times, before printing was invented, and part of the function of coinage was to give the people some idea of what their rulers actually looked like, strict representation was much more common in coin portraits. A recent article in The Numismatist, by Dr. Gerald D. Hart, makes use of this fact. Dr. Hart is able to diagnose the clinical symptoms of hereditary diseases in the Roman imperial family, simply by studying their coinage!

I saw a 1907 High Relief [St. Gaudens Double Eagle] at a show here last week. A dealer was displaying it and I walked by to take a look. I heard the dealer get into a long conversation with someone about the High Relief's "knife edge." I didn't know what that was really all about. — P.P., Los Angeles, CA

"Knife edge" is a term commonly used in British numismatics. It means the same as "wire edge," a phrase we use quite often in Inventory Selections. Wire-edged coins have a sharp, thin flange around their rim where the coin's edge meets its face surfaces. At times, these flanges are caused accidentally. For example, if a coin is struck within a worn die collar, metal may squeeze up between the collar and die, causing the knife edge effect. Or, due to a mechanical mishap, a coin may be struck too many times, forcing the rim to assume a high, wire-like relief.

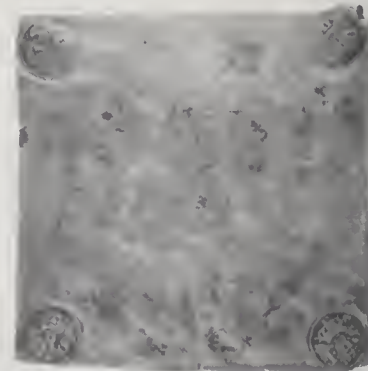

In the early days of American coinage, when accidental wire edges sometimes rose as high as 1/10", some coiners filed them away. Today, markings from such filings are still evident on some Half Cent Pieces.

However, not all wire edges are accidental. In 1907, two coins designed by Augustus St. Gaudens were purposely struck with wire edges: an experimental Indian Head Eagle, and the famous High Relief Roman Numerals Double Eagle. We would guess that the dealer you spoke of was talking about the coin's knife edge because many numismatists consider this to be the key distinguishing feature between regular-issue 1907 High Reliefs (of which 11,250 were struck) and the extremely rare proofs (mintage unknown). While the regular-issue's wire edge is often irregular, the rare proofs usually feature a highly precise wire edge that is of consistent width and height.

While preparing my bid for the Treasury sale of Carson City dollars, I found myself wondering why so many silver dollars were minted in the late 19th century, and why the supply lasted so long. Weren't they ever circulated? Were they "duds" like the Susan B. Anthony Dollar that never won public acceptance? — Y.B., Yellowstone, NY

It's true that the silver dollar was never a popular coin in its own day, especially in the North and East where most of the U.S. population still lived. But overproduction of silver dollars is more to blame for the surplus than undercirculation. Powerful elements of the silver-mining lobby maneuvered Congress into agreeing to purchase and coin much more silver than was needed for currency.

A parallel situation existed with copper in Russia in 1727, and in Sweden in the 1640's and the 1720's. In each case, the government controlled copper mines, and wished to maintain the price of copper by using large amounts in coinage. Large cast copper plates, stamped at the corners and center with a royal device, were minted. (Shown here, a 1727 Swedish 4-Daler copper piece, measuring 9 1/8" x 9 1/4", and weighing about 6 1/2 lbs.)

Market Report

by Tim LaPointe

At the shows

As we noted in last month's Market Report, activity at the January F.U.N. (Florida United Numismatists) Convention in Orlando, Florida, was extremely hectic. Attendance was heavy and, as we went to press with the January issue of Inventory Selections, reports of record prices realized at the F.U.N. Auction (conducted by New England Rare Coin Auctions) were just beginning to come in. Not surprisingly, rare silver and gold produced the most heated bidding. An 1800 Early Half Dime in EF-40 went under the hammer for $2,400; an 1868-S Seated Dime in MS-67 brought $3,550; a fully struck 1862 Seated Half Dollar in MS-67 brought $8,000; while a rare 1917-S Obverse Walking Liberty Half Dollar in MS-67 sold for $4,900. In the gold category, the ever-popular St. Gaudens Double Eagle series proved unstoppable, with a 1922-S in MS-60 realizing $2,600; a fully struck 1924-D in MS-63 realizing $5,050; a 1924-S in MS-63 realizing $4,000; and the rare 1927-S in MS-60 bringing an unprecedented $12,000. Other outstanding gold prices realized included an 1871-CC Liberty Double Eagle in EF-40/53 (one of the finest known) that sold for $4,650 and an 1873 50c Octagonal Indian Head specimen of California Gold (Lee #30-B, R-4) in MS-65 that went under the hammer for $1,750.

Since that early January F.U.N. Auction, the market has hardly held still. Many of the above-mentioned prices are already being challenged and, in some cases, even surpassed. Activity at both the Numismatic Association of Southern California (NASC) and Long Beach conventions — as well as at the four recent West Coast auctions by R.L. Hughes (Jan. 21-22), Bowers & Ruddy (Jan. 24-25), Superior (Jan. 28-29) and Kagin's (Feb. 1-2) — has been exceptional. Dealers ran themselves ragged trying to purchase needed inventory. Gem type coins, gold coins and gold rarities, because of the recent press that today's gold prices have gotten, are high on every collector's Want List. This makes it difficult for any one dealer to fill his or her needs at any single show or auction. This, in fact, is why New England numismatists have attended virtually every show and convention on the numismatic calendar.

Gold

As this report is being written, gold bullion is at $660 — down slightly from previous weeks. This has obviously had an effect on the bullion coin market, with Kruggerands, Mexican Pesos and Coronas showing appropriate price drops. However, the drop in bullion has not slowed collector/investor interest in rare coins. Particularly strong demand has cropped up in Gem Proof rarities and Superb common-date gold. Some examples: a 1915 Indian Half Eagle was recently sold for $9,500, while a 1904 Proof $20 sold for $55,000. Also noteworthy was a Superb but not perfect 1911-D Quarter Eagle which traded hands between dealers for $30,000. There also seems to be a strong interest at this time in early 1800's gold in all denominations and grades. Gem Carson City Mint gold is bringing just about whatever sellers ask.

Silver

Silver bullion is currently at the $33 per ounce level. This, too, represents a slight drop from recently high levels, and is causing momentary stagnation in the common-date BU roll market. Mercury Dimes, Washington Quarters before 1950, Washington Quarters from 1955-64, and Walking Liberty Half Dollars have gone up despite the drop in bullion. Mercury Dimes with full split bands are bringing just about whatever sellers want. One dealer this month was offering to pay $3,100 for a nice roll of '40-D Mercuries and was having no luck finding a willing supplier. At the Long Beach Convention, a 1927-S Standing Liberty Quarter in near-Gem condition traded hands between dealers well in excess of $10,000. A 1921-S Walking Liberty Half also traded hands between dealers at around $40,000. Roll sets of BU Walking Liberty Halves (1941-47) are up by as much as $7,500.

Nickel

Liberty Nickels, Shield Nickels and Buffalo Nickels are all being offered at higher and higher prices each month. All have shown gains in both Mint State and Proof, with Buffalo Nickels making a particularly strong showing in Proof. One nice, but not Superb, Proof Buffalo sold for $2,500 to a dealer at the F.U.N. Convention.

U.S. Currency

The U.S. Currency market continues to grow with collector, investor and now heightened dealer interest boosting trading. At the Long Beach Convention, one California rare coin dealer purchased every Gem First Charter National he could locate. As he put it, "I feel with the rapid increase in rare coins, Gem Notes from 1875 are vastly underpriced." In addition to the activity in Large Size Type Notes, there was renewed demand for Small Size Currency Sheets, Gem Fractional Currency, and Hawaiian and North African Notes.

Although the trading of scarce circulated notes has been light in recent weeks, many dealers felt circulated type notes would soon be experiencing renewed interest as CU notes continue to rise in price.

World Coins

New England's World Coin Department has just completed a 10-day buying trip in Europe, including a stop at the International Munzenbörse Show, held last week in Basel, Switzerland. Activity was hectic with many dealers now paying full retail for coins which, just a few months earlier, they would have sold for less. Byzantine gold coins, a new area of collector interest, are quickly being bought up by astute collectors and investors.

An Invitation to Greater Knowledge

Numismatics is a world unto itself — vast in scope, rich in history, fascinating in detail. To explore this world is to be captivated by it — and to explore it fully is to become a member of the American Numismatic Association. The American Numismatic Association (the A.N.A.) is the world's largest and most active numismatic organization. And when you join, you'll receive:

- ☐ The Numismatist — A scholarly monthly magazine sent free to all regular, club, junior and life A.N.A. members (see dues box below). Through The Numismatist you'll expand your collecting horizons and become knowledgeable in a wealth of numismatic subjects.
- ☐ ANACS Service — The A.N.A.'s grading and authentication service for all your coins at a special membership rate.
- ☐ Use of the A.N.A. Library — The largest numismatic library in the world from which you can borrow all kinds of numismatic reference works.
- ☐ Insurances — Offered through the A.N.A. for your collection, your health, and your life.

Plus, you'll receive a free Dictionary of Numismatic Terms, an Introduction to Numismatics, and an invitation to participate in the A.N.A.'s annual conventions and auctions.

Our Complete Numismatic Services

1. Guarantees

☐ Grading

We guarantee that coins purchased from us are graded correctly and will meet our high standards when you wish to sell them. Further, we guarantee to purchase these coins at the same grade at which they were sold, or sell them for you at auction cataloged at the same grade at which you purchased them.

Our grading system is patterned after that of the American Numismatic Association. Developed in 1978, the A.N.A. System is rapidly being adopted by virtually the entire professional numismatic community. Its designations are:

Poor.....	1
Fair.....	2
About Good.....	3
Good.....	4,5
Very Good.....	8,10
Fine.....	12,15
Very Fine.....	20,25,30,35
Extremely Fine.....	40,45
About Uncirculated.....	50,55,58
Mint State.....	60,63,64,65,66,67,69,70
Proof.....	60,63,65,67,69,70

Slash grades indicate obverse/reverse designations. For example, a grade of 65/63 describes a coin with an obverse of Mint State 65 and a reverse of Mint State 63.

☐ Authenticity

We further guarantee that all coins sold by New England Rare Coin Galleries are authentic. To protect our customers, and as proof of our certainty that no altered or counterfeit coin can escape our attention, we guarantee to refund the full purchase price plus 15% compound annual interest, on any non-authentic coin acquired from us.

☐ Documentation

These guarantees are issued in writing with all coins purchased from New England Rare Coin Galleries. Each written guarantee is personally endorsed by two professional numismatists.

☐ Satisfaction

If, for any reason, you are not satisfied with your purchases, you may return them within 45 days of the date you received them for a full refund or replacement.
